Submitting a Hearing Loss Claim

If you have been exposed to two or more years of prolonged occupational noise exposure (above 85 dBA/8 hours per day) while working in Newfoundland and Labrador, you are eligible to submit an application for an occupational noise induced hearing loss claim.

Please complete and submit the following documents to begin the application process:

- 1. Worker's Report of Hearing Loss (form 6HL) - All sections must be completed. The form also includes a section for your employment record (Section F). Please note that you must:
  - Include all years of employment.
  - Attach copies of all employment audiograms regardless of whether they were performed in Newfoundland and Labrador or another province/territory.
  - If you are/were a member of a labour organization, please attach a letter from the union confirming the date you joined the union, the companies you were dispatched to and the dates you worked for these companies.
- 2. Employer's Information Questionnaire - This form must be completed by your current employer if you are exposed to noise exceeding 85 dBA at your current job. If you are not currently employed, this form is not required.

If you have any questions, please call 1.800.563.9000 or email info@workplacenl.ca.

When your completed application package is received, your application will be reviewed to determine if your hearing loss has been caused by your occupational noise exposure while working in Newfoundland and Labrador.

IMPORTANT: All documents must be completed in full and submitted together or they will be returned to you for completion before your application is reviewed.
